

Hardware Made Easy

In the technology wilderness, it's survival of the fittest. And it's imperative that you have the right gear. Computers, printers, storage devices, networking products and backup systems are essential survival tools. Our hardware solutions come from the most trusted names in the business. And as a value-add reseller, CSI helps ensure that equipment is configured to meet your specific needs. Then we keep close tabs on your order to make sure you receive it in a timely manner.

If you're equipping students with laptops, doing a lease-refresh on PCs or upgrading servers we have you covered. We also have the gear you need if you're planning to purchase more portable solutions such as PDAs or tablet PCs. Considering enterprise or multi-function print solutions? We're here to talk with you about the benefits. When it's time to add to your infrastructure, we're the source for Cisco. To put it simply...CSI provides every type of gear you need for every type of journey.
