

Lesson Planning Made Easy

Curriculator. It's like having a GPS for your lesson planning! Finally, there's an easy way for principals and teachers to make sure that their school's lesson plans are headed in the right direction, meeting state educational standards...and encompassing "No Child Left Behind."

Curriculator is the most powerful tool available for improving the performance of individual teachers, students, schools and school districts. By tracking which standards have been met and which still need to be covered, Curriculator provides an organizational tool that teachers love and principals can't live without.

Available for grades K through 12 across all subjects.

For teachers, Curriculator is a welcome tool

- Organized: Curriculator is a lesson planning aid that automatically keeps track of which standards have been met and which need more attention.
- Buttoned up: Curriculator provides a standardized format for detailed lesson plans that are professional and consistent.
- Time Saving: Easy-to-use Wizard and point-and-click access to embedded state standards reduces time and effort required for preparing lessons.
- Convenient: Web-based software provides anytime, anywhere access.
- Prepared: My Lessons provides each teacher with a color-coded calendar view of their plans that indicates the stage and status of plans.
- Flexible: Select multiple academic standard types for grades K-12 for any subject and create detailed or simple lesson plans.
- Informative: Teacher Reflection allows teachers to add useful follow-up information to lesson plans for future use. Teachers are automatically notified if they pull up an existing plan and standards have changed since the plan was last used.
- Credible: Administrators are wowed by the forethought and organization of daily lesson plans that document how state standards are being met.
- Shareable: With the Lesson Library plans can be reused, shared among teachers and passed along to new teachers. Teachers can view, edit, make comments and duplicate lesson plans.
- Targeted: Filtering options allow teachers to search by date, school, teacher, course, grade, targeted standards, or key word to find the plan that fits their needs.

Curriculator is a “must-have” tool for principals and school administrators

- Accountable: Helps individual schools and school districts prove compliance with increasingly rigorous state requirements and benchmarks for student achievement and improvement.
- Motivational: Gives teachers the incentive to address state academic standards in their lesson plans...and administrators a tool to measure success.
- Diagnostic: A wide variety of reports helps administrators identify areas for needed teacher or student improvement.
- Trackable: Administrators can quickly determine if teachers have submitted all required plans.
- Insightful: The Attributes Used report provides valuable information about which techniques, technologies and sources of content are being used by teachers throughout the school or district.
- Available: Losing a key teacher due to an unplanned absence is more manageable when that teacher's lesson plans are immediately available to a substitute through the Emergency Plans feature.
- Buildable: Immediate access to the most successful lesson plans provides a foundation for long-term improvement and a ready-reference source for teachers.
- Updatable: New standards are automatically imported as they are released.
- Flexible: Schools or districts can create their own custom standards in addition to the embedded state standards.
- Archiveable: Manage and maintain an unlimited number of lesson plans in one centralized location.
